

Bicycle Accidents

Bicycle accidents are often the result of the failure of other vehicles to properly share the road and not seeing the bicycle and its rider. Many drivers are unaware that bicycles have the same rights to the road as motor vehicles. When an accident occurs, bicyclists are extremely vulnerable to injuries due to their lack of any means of protection. If you, or someone you know is involved in a bicycle accident, you should seek a lawyer who will do everything they can to ensure you receive maximum compensation for your injuries.
