

Turkeys for Veterans

In an effort to give thanks for the sacrifices of active duty service members, veterans and families of those serving abroad, Tully Rinckey PLLC and Hannaford Supermarkets will provide free turkeys to active duty and retiree military personnel this Thanksgiving through the law firm's fourth annual "Turkeys for Veterans" program.

Officials from Tully Rinckey PLLC and Hannaford Supermarkets will hand deliver the turkeys to active duty service members and veterans at the law firm's headquarters at 441 New Karner Road from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Nov. 20.

Turkeys will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis with proof of military ID.

Limit one turkey per person.

This Thanksgiving marks the fourth year for the "Turkeys for Veterans" program.

Since the program's inception in 2009, Tully Rinckey PLLC has provided the Thanksgiving table centerpiece for the family members of over 300 active duty and retired military Personnel in the greater Capital Region.

"As we give thanks for our own good fortune this holiday, we cannot help but to reflect upon the great sacrifices made by the men and women who have fought for our country. The Turkeys for Veterans program has become a tradition that we look forward to year-round" said Tully Rinckey PLLC Managing Partner and U.S. Army veteran Greg T. Rinckey. "We are excited to partner with Hannaford to continue the program and provide a small token of gratitude and appreciation to our nation's military personnel."

"All of us at Hannaford are honored to work with Tully Rinckey, to offer a sense of comfort, home and warmth to those who so selflessly dedicate their lives to serving our country," said Hannaford Supermarkets Community Relations Specialist Molly Tarleton. "We look forward to serving those who serve this Thanksgiving."

Tully Rinckey PLLC has a long-standing record of service with the military. Throughout its four offices, the firm employs 41 attorneys, 20 percent of whom are veterans of the U.S. Army, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and Navy or are currently serving in the U.S. Army and National Guard Reserve.
