Family. It's one word, but it means so much. It is central to our daily lives and to the decisions we make. It can create memories or conflict, joy or pain, and it can present opportunity and responsibility. That is why a change in the family dynamic is so stressful. Whether it is a separation or divorce that creates separate households, or an adoption or marriage that builds a new family structure, a Family and Matrimonial Lawyer can be the facilitator for restructuring the family dynamic, ensure the protection, and define the new roles of those involved. The Family and Matrimonial Department at Tully Rinckey PLLC has the knowledge and experience to handle:

Adoption

Separation

Divorce

Family Appeals

Prenuptials

Mediation

Custody
