Tully Rinckey PLLC named one of the Best Places to Work

- Award Marks Third Achievement as a Leading Capital Region Employer since 2005

October 31, 2008 – Albany, NY

– Tully Rinckey PLLC has been named one of the “Best Places to Work in the Capital Region” by The Business Review for 2008. This is the third time since 2005 that the law firm has been honored with this achievement. The prestigious award recognizes achievements in creating a positive work environment that attracts and retains employees through a combination of benefits, working conditions, and company culture. Some of the benefits unique to the firm include free medical insurance and ownership of a luxury suite at the Times Union Center. Tully Rinckey PLLC was selected as one of the top 30 out of 200 companies to enter. Finalists were ranked based on information collected through a web-based anonymous survey evaluating the company’s work environment. “It’s a great honor to be recognized a third time by The Business Review and, more importantly, by our employees,” said Greg T. Rinckey, managing partner of Tully Rinckey PLLC. “Our firm believes in offering a work environment where employees feel valued and where they are free to voice concerns and offer feedback. Our continued success is a direct result of the hard work our attorneys and support staff put forth daily.” The firm has grown tremendously since its first award in 2005, including the opening of a new branch office in Washington, DC earlier this year. The Business Review has also named the firm one of the top ten law firms in the Capital Region. Tully Rinckey PLLC and the other top companies will be profiled in a special supplement of The Business Review issued on December 5 and will be honored at a celebration on December 4 at the Crowne Plaza in Albany.
