NATIONAL POLICE WEEK

Law Firm Offers Free Legal Advice to Law Enforcement

What:

Communities across the country are once again preparing to come together for National Police Week. It's a chance to honor those law enforcement officers who made the ultimate sacrifice. This year, the names of 316 officers killed in the line of duty will be added to the National Law Enforcement Memorial in Washington, D.C. In recognition of all that local law enforcement does for our communities, Tully Rinckey PLLC will offer free half-hour consultations to police officers on issues including family and matrimonial law, trusts and estates, bankruptcy, employment law, civil litigation, military law and criminal law. The free consultations will be available by appointment only, between normal business hours (8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.) on Monday, May 16, 2011. Police officers will be asked to setup an appointment in advance. Those receiving free consultations will be asked to show a current or retired police badge. Where:
