

Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton

is home to the U.S.M.C.'s main amphibious base, and is the west coast's primary Marine Corps base. Pendleton is located in San Diego County, and is home to the I Marine Expeditionary Force. Camp Pendleton serves as a year-round training facility of the Corps and all other U.S. military branches. The base population includes 42,000 active duty personnel, Marines from other units and reservists completing training exercises, as well as recruits from the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, bringing the daytime population to approximately 100,000. Tully Rinckey PLLC is a multistate law firm founded by veterans who are devoted to defending the rights of Marines, such as those at Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton. Our attorneys have a combined 50 years of experience in the Judge Advocate General's (JAG) Corps and our founding partner is the only known civilian attorney to currently serve in the Army Reserves as a lieutenant colonel. We know first-hand the unique challenges service members face in their daily lives and in civilian and military courts. We can provide legal services for the following: AWOL/military deserter

; positive urinalysis; court martial/USMJ representation

; Article 15/nonjudicial punishment

; Article 32 proceedings

; correction of military records

; military-related mesothelioma

, general officer representation

; ROTC and military academy enrollment

; and security clearance representation

. Our military law attorneys, who have all held high-ranking officer positions, can consult with service members in person or via telephone or Skype. Tully Rinckey PLLC has represented service members based at military installations throughout North America, Europe and Asia. We are capable of representing clients via video teleconferencing, when applicable. Don't take a gamble with a military attorney, whose high experience level and availability is not guaranteed.
