

Plate reader installed at intersection

By: Lou Raguse BUFFALO, N.Y. (WIVB) - A mission to curb crime is taking a new turn in the Queen City. Officials have now installed license plate scanners at the intersection of Bailey and Broadway. That neighborhood has seen a lot of crime, and longtime residents like Joe Gorniak wants to see something done. "The mayor says everything is doing good and improving, but I don't see it. I mean, take a walk down these streets at night and see how you would do," he commented. Mayor Byron Brown license plate readers recently installed at the intersection are one answer to fighting crime. The readers record every license plate that goes through the intersection. Brown says they would help investigators. For example, in the case of a drive-by shooting, the readers would help them pinpoint which vehicle was responsible. "Obviously individuals who know we have this kind of technology available in the area are less inclined to commit that crime because we are more capable of catching them and putting them in jail where they belong," Mayor Brown argued. The installation caught many people off-guard because the mayor did not make his plans public. Brown says these readers are just being tested. "We need to go to the City Council first to have the City Council approve the installation," the mayor explained. If the plan moves forward, former District Attorney Frank Clark believes they could be a helpful tool for prosecutors. Clark said, "Unless the cost is prohibitive, I think it has a real potential benefit." Local defense attorney Lori Hoffman suspects the scanners will end up being used for issuing tickets for things like unlicensed drivers. "To try and generate as many tickets as possible," she stated. But residents hope that's not the case. Legally-speaking, it's not an invasion of privacy. These are the same readers that officers already use in their squad cars. And Amherst and Cheektowaga both have stationary readers installed as well.

&#8220;A truly client oriented and outstanding organization.&#8221;

I highly recommend Anthony J. Kuhn and the Attorneys at Tully Rinckey for any military legal . I am extremely happy with the results since I got the best possible outcome out of my case. You can expect to be treated with great attention, care and respect. Anthony was my lawyer during my case and contacted me regularly and answered all my questions. This is the type of care and attention my case received through out the process. I was extremely excited when Anthony secured me a complete victory out of my case. To also give you the back ground on my case, I was recommended to be administratively separated under article 14-12c. The case turned out to be very complicated and frustrating. I am very grateful to have found this law firm to help me with my case. All of my calls, inquiries were returned competently and very quickly. I was always kept in the knowing of even if there hadn't been any new updates. It truly felt and is a law firm that puts the customer's satisfaction as his top priority. A truly client oriented and outstanding organization. Thanks for a magnificent job! D.R. on on Attorney Anthony Kuhn, Esq.

&#8220;He took on this case with vigor and ZERO FEAR of the government!&#8221;

"LITERALLY THE BEST MONEY I EVER SPENT!!!! The USAF charged my son with Article 92, Violate General Order and Article 128, Simple Assault. I spoke to many attorneys who said to me,

"Your son will be convicted of the Simple Assault because putting lotion on someone's face is considered an assault as it is an unwanted touch." They all wanted me to work on a plea deal with the government that ended with my son being discharged, spending time in the brig and having a federal conviction for the rest of his life. Knowing that this just didn't warrant a federal conviction, bad conduct discharge and time in the brig, I was on a search to find an attorney who would look at this case for what it was: a couple of 19-21 year-old immature young men horse playing. I was looking for someone who would say something different; someone who would be able to look at the case from more than one view. When I spoke to Mr. Rinckey, I thought I was going to get the same ole speech, but to my surprise, I IMMEDIATELY felt at ease and I knew right then that he was going to be my attorney (not sure if he knew it at this time). He took on this case with vigor and ZERO FEAR of the government! He wanted them to know that this was NOT going to go away with any plea deal! And he went to work! Then, LITERALLY 2 DAYS BEFORE trail the government added an additional charge, which was Article 134, Unlawful Entry. Mr. Rinckey stayed focused, developed a plan, and off to trail we went. He was so prepared, calm and at ease. I remember him saying to me, "I am ready to try this case." And yesterday – 14 APR 2016 – my son was found NOT GUILTY on ALL CHARGES AND SPECIFICATIONS!!! Yesss!!! You know, it's always hard to find money for an attorney, but I learned one thing with this case. Although I thought we couldn't afford an attorney, the truth of the matter was that we couldn't afford NOT TO HAVE an attorney. I only wish I had found Mr. Rinckey sooner, but that's okay. I have found my ATTORNEY for life," Y.W. on Founding Partner on Greg Rinckey, Esq.

&#8220;He attacked my matter with the determination, attentiveness and professionalism that I would expect&#8221;

"Attorney Anthony Kuhn was able to negotiate the dismissal of involuntary administrative separation proceedings against me and arrange for me to voluntarily retire. After a second GOMOR was permanently filed in my personnel file, the Army informed me that I was facing involuntary separation. After missing my window to rebut the proceedings, I called Anthony Kuhn for assistance and he assured me that he would do everything in his power to negotiate a dismissal and voluntary retirement. He attacked my matter with the determination, attentiveness and professionalism that I would expect from a seasoned attorney and fellow combative Veteran. He made it clear from the start that he was personally vested in my matter. As a Sergeant Major and former client, I enthusiastically and unequivocally recommend Attorney and Veteran Anthony Kuhn to any fellow service member or Veteran with a pending Military Law matter," P.W. on Attorney Anthony Kuhn
