Dear Mr. Tully:

This is to verify your employment with the Federal Bureau of Prisons and your standing at the time you retired. To that end, the following information is provided:

Periods of Service: August 20, 1995 through November 10, 2000, at which time you resigned in good standing.
August 22, 2002 through February 18, 2008, at which time you retired on disability and in good standing. Your retirement was not due to any mental illness or defect. Throughout your employment with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, you were a law enforcement officer. While employed with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, you received above-average evaluations.

Date of Retirement: February 18, 2008

Last Position Held: Correctional Program Officer, GS-006-13

Location: Metropolitan Detention Center
Brooklyn, New York

Disciplinary Cases: No disciplinary action was ever taken against you during your career with the Bureau of Prisons nor were there any outstanding cases at the time of your separation. Therefore, you are considered to have retired in "good standing."

This information is provided to verify your employment with the Federal Bureau of Prisons and may be used, along with your latest SF-50, Personnel Action, showing your retirement, and that you are entitled pursuant to the requirements of the Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act (LEOSA) Improvements Act of 2009, to all of the benefits routinely available to retired law enforcement officers of the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

Sincerely,

Margaret Connors
Human Resource Administrator
