

Around Tech Valley

First published: Thursday, August 6, 2009

grab bag

Eric Mower and Associates (EMA) was honored with six awards, including best of division, from the Business Marketing Association (BMA) for its superior business-to-business marketing communications efforts. EMA also received three Pro-Comm Awards at the BMA annual conference and three ACE Awards from BMA of New York City. The Pro-Comm Awards include one best of division and two awards for excellence. The Ace Awards include first place, second place and honorable mention. EMA has an office in the Albany area.

Kasselman Electric Co. of Albany won a federal contract from the U.S. Army Materiel Command in Watervliet. The contract, worth $197,911, is for various paving repairs.

real estate

Mimi Morrison, a member of the Greater Capital Association of Realtors, recently joined the Delmar office of Weichert Realtors Northeast Group. Originally from New Orleans, Morrison is a four-year resident of Delanson. She holds a bachelor's degree in secondary education, a master's degree in public administration and is a certified paralegal. As a specialist in residential sales and relocation for Weichert, Morrison will serve clients in central New York.

open for business

Local entrepreneur Cara Tromans has opened a lia sophia jewelry business. Tromans will present high fashion jewelry at in-home shows. For more information call 256-1531 or visit <http://www.liasophia.com/sites/tromansc>.

Corner Gateway LLC opened its doors at 1972 New Scotland Road in Slingerlands. Corner Gateway is an authorized ShipCenter for FedEx in addition to its United States Postal Service functions. The business also offers back office services and supplies. For more information call 461-0082.

Tully Rinckey PLLC has expanded its services in Washington, D.C. The law firm will double its office space and hire five attorneys over the next six months. The expansion comes shortly after the firm's acquisition of the Saratoga Springs based Fletcher Law Firm. The firm now has three offices in the Capital Region and Washington, D.C. metro areas.

Compiled by Adrienne Freeman, Bebe Nyquist, Tom Quinlan, Azra Haqqie and Jennifer Patterson.