

People On the Move for April 16, 2010

Tully Rinckey PLLC of Washington, D.C. added Brandy Hood as an associate in its federal sector labor and employment law practice.

Hood will provide representation to federal employees in a wide range of employment and labor issues including discrimination, sexual harassment, equal pay, adverse action and Title VII claims. She has previous experience in immigration, bankruptcy, civil litigation and business transactions. Prior to joining Tully Rinckey, Hood was a judicial extern for Honorable Lance Africk at the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana and a judicial intern for the Honorable Frederick H. Wicker at the Louisiana Fifth Circuit of Appeal.

Brandy Hood