

Tully Rinckey Steps Up Efforts to Aid Homeless Veterans

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development recently reported the findings of a one-night survey taken last January that over 636,000 people were homeless nationwide, down 2.1 percent from a year earlier. Veteran homelessness declined even further since January 2010, dropping by 12 percent, or 8,834. According to HUD, an estimated 119 homeless veterans were counted in the Capital Region last January, with 105 of them being in area shelters and 14 being unsheltered (See chart ). Even as the nation's ranks of homeless veterans decreases, Tully Rinckey PLLC this holiday season stepped up its efforts to help those who served in the military fend off the cold. For its second annual Coats for Veterans event, the firm partnered with the Fort Worth, Texas-based Dickies Clothing to give 50 coats to veterans in the Capital Region. The coats will benefit veterans at the Veterans Community Services Center in Albany. Additionally, Tully Rinckey PLLC provided a $500 cash donation to the Veteran Community Service Center's Health Care for Homeless Veterans Program to show its appreciation for the organization's year-round dedication in the assistance of veterans. While Tully Rinckey PLLC is known for being a full-service law firm in the Capital Region, it is also a service-disabled, veteran-owned small business dedicated to defending the rights of service members and veterans throughout the country. “He took on this case with vigor and ZERO FEAR of the government!”

"LITERALLY THE BEST MONEY I EVER SPENT!!!! The USAF charged my son with Article 92, Violate General Order and Article 128, Simple Assault. I spoke to many attorneys who said to me, "Your son will be convicted of the Simple Assault because putting lotion on someone's face is considered an assault as it is an unwanted touch." They all wanted me to work on a plea deal with the government that ended with my son being discharged, spending time in the brig and having a federal conviction for the rest of his life. Knowing that this just didn't warrant a federal conviction, bad conduct discharge and time in the brig, I was on a search to find an attorney who would look at this case for what it was: a couple of 19-21 year-old immature young men horse playing. I was looking for someone who would say something different; someone who would be able to look at the case from more than one view. When I spoke to Mr. Rinckey, I thought I was going to get the same ole speech, but to my surprise, I IMMEDIATELY felt at ease and I knew right then that he was going to be my attorney (not sure if he knew it at this time). He took on this case with vigor and ZERO FEAR of the government! He wanted them to know that this was NOT going to go away with any plea deal! And he went to work! Then, LITERALLY 2 DAYS BEFORE trial the government added an additional charge, which was Article 134, Unlawful Entry. Mr. Rinckey stayed focused, developed a plan, and off to trial we went. He was so prepared, calm and at ease. I remember him saying to me, "I am ready to try this case." And yesterday – 14 APR 2016 – my son was found NOT GUILTY on ALL CHARGES AND SPECIFICATIONS!!! Yesss!!! You know, it's always hard to find money for an attorney, but I learned one thing with this case. Although I thought we couldn't afford an attorney, the truth of the matter was that we couldn't afford NOT TO HAVE an attorney. I only wish I had found Mr. Rinckey sooner, but that's okay. I have found my ATTORNEY for life," Y.W. on Founding Partner on Greg Rinckey, Esq.
