

Power of Attorney

Most people like calling the shots themselves when it comes to their finances. However, there may be times when you are not able to make these decisions and need someone else to make them on your behalf. By executing a power of attorney, you can appoint someone you trust as your “agent,” also known as an “attorney-in-fact.” Your agent can handle a specific financial matter or a broader range of such matters. How We Can Help

Don't put your finances at risk. Get a financial back up plan by executing a power of attorney. Call Tully Rinckey PLLC and schedule a free
