

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Elderly, blind, and disabled individuals may qualify for Supplemental Security Income (SSI), depending on their health, age, assets, and income. This benefit program, which is administered by the Social Security Administration (SSA), provides stipends for food, clothing, and shelter to low-income disabled adults and children, along with financially strapped elderly individuals.

How We Can Help

The Social Security disability attorneys at Tully Rinckey PLLC have years of experience helping people apply for SSI benefits and fight SSA denials, reductions, and terminations. If you want to apply for SSI benefits or have already applied but received a denial notice, call Tully Rinckey PLLC in Rochester, N.Y. Talk to an experienced Social Security attorney – at no cost. Federal regulations ensure that you get paid before we do.

During your free

initial consultation in Rochester, NY, an attorney will review your case, explain your rights, and help you develop a strategy to obtain or retain SSI benefits. To be eligible for SSI benefits, you must suffer from statutory blindness or a disability that impedes the performance of any substantial gainful activity, or be 65 years of age or older. If the person is disabled, his or her impairment(s) can be either mental or physical, and it must be severe and have lasted or be expected to last for at least 12 months. The SSI application and appeals processes are extremely complex. Mistakes can cost you in terms of the time it takes to obtain SSI benefits or the benefit amount. Don't take this on alone. Get an experienced SSI attorney on your side today by calling Tully Rinckey PLLC – you don't pay until we help you secure the benefits you deserve. The social security attorneys at Tully Rinckey PLLC in Rochester, N.Y. can represent creditors and debtors throughout New York's Finger Lakes region, including Batavia, Geneseo, Rochester, Canandaigua, Albion, Waterloo, Lyons, Warsaw, and Penn Yan.
