

Property Crimes

Property crimes can range from misdemeanors to felonies, usually depending on the value of the property involved and whether or how force was used. Perpetrators can face imprisonment, probation, parole, and fines. Generally, property crimes fall under the below categories:

Larceny
: The wrongful taking, obtaining or withholding of someone else's property. Also referred to as "theft."

Burglary

: The entering into or remaining in a structure with the intent of committing a crime such as larceny. Also referred to as "housebreaking."

Armed Robbery

: Use of a dangerous weapon (e.g. gun or knife) to forcefully take someone else's property.

Motor Vehicle Theft

: The stealing of another person's motor vehicle. Also referred to as "carjacking" and "grand theft auto."
