

Violent Crimes

Violent crimes, such as murder, domestic violence, criminal possession of a weapon, hate crimes and assault, carry severe consequences. People convicted of any of these offenses could face imprisonment, fines; loss of child custody or visitation rights, and community service. How We Will Help

That is why it is crucial for anyone charged with committing a felony or misdemeanor violent crime to consult with a violent crime attorney. You can contact one of our attorneys 24 hours a day, seven days a week

. Criminal defense consultations are FREE

. By coming to Tully Rinckey PLLC, you will have at your side someone who believes you are innocent until proven otherwise and who will aggressively defend your rights. You have a right to counsel. You have a right to remain silent. Don't try to explain your way out of a charge. Your statements can be twisted by prosecutors. Tully Rinckey PLLC's violent crime lawyers in Syracuse, N.Y. will help by doing any of the following: Listening to you

Examining your case to determine whether the police conducted an illegal search

Examining your case to determine whether the police violated your due process rights

Challenging the way police collected evidence

Challenging the evidence that prosecutors want to use against you

Cross-examining witnesses

Fighting to get the charges thrown out or reduced

Raising mitigating factors, such as age or lack of prior criminal record, to try to get sentences reduced

Tully Rinckey PLLC's violent crime lawyers can represent people throughout Central New York, including Syracuse, Cicero, North Syracuse, Manlius, Liverpool, East Syracuse, Cazenovia, Baldwinsville, and DeWitt.
