

Parenting Time

When one parent is granted physical custody of a child, the other parent, referred to as the “non-custodial parent,” can petition family court for contact and parenting time with the child.

How We Can Help

The visitation attorneys at Tully Rinckey PLLC in Syracuse, N.Y. know how important it is for non-custodial parents – and their children – to have regular interaction with each other. It is crucial for a custodial access schedule to take into account factors such as the non-custodial parent’s work schedule and availability. Our visitation lawyers can help custodial and non-custodial parents with the following:

Negotiating a custodial access schedule

Preparing and filing a visitation proceeding if the custodial parent denies contact or parenting time in violation of a court’s order

Preparing and filing visitation modification petitions

Tully Rinckey PLLC’s parenting time lawyers can represent spouses throughout Central New York, including Syracuse, Cicero, North Syracuse, Manlius, Liverpool, East Syracuse, Cazenovia, Baldwinsville, and DeWitt. Call today to schedule a meeting with one of our parenting time attorneys at 315-492-4700 or e-mail info@1888law4life.com to view a video about our consultation process.

. Click here

Our office is minutes away from Destiny USA, formerly the Carousel Mall, and several courthouses. Located in Franklin Square, near exits for I-81 and I-690, our office is easy to get to and offers plenty of nearby parking.

If your legal matter is urgent, call 518-727-3593 to speak to an attorney 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The firm is responsive to the needs of current and prospective clients. We will respond to phone calls within normal business hours and e-mails within hours on the same business day. The quickest way to get a hold of us is by calling. During normal business hours, we have a client relations team that can put potential clients in touch with the attorney whom they need. If you call or e-mail us after hours, you should expect to hear from our office by the next business day.