

Construction Litigation

Whether you are involved with commercial development or residential construction, any number of factors may arise that could result in construction litigation. Just one delay or breach of contract could derail a construction project, and it is crucial for affected parties to be represented by an effective construction litigation attorney. Tully Rinckey PLLC's construction litigation lawyers in Syracuse, N.Y. can represent Central New York homeowners, business owners, contractors, subcontractors, architects, and engineers in any of the following matters:

breach of contract

construction defects and failures

delays

indemnity claims

fraud claims

mechanic's liens

misrepresentation of contract terms negligent performance or unworkmanlike performance regulation violations

surety claims

worker's compensation

zoning

Don't delay in contacting a Tully Rinckey PLLC construction litigation attorney in Syracuse, N.Y. If you wait too long, you may not be able to recover damages due to statutes of litigation for construction contracts. In New York, for example, parties have six years to file a lawsuit over a contractual issue or liability. That filing deadline is three years in instances of negligence. Fraud has a special rule, generally it is six years, but it may be extended to two years from discovery of the claim if the six years has already run. Tully Rinckey PLLC's construction litigation lawyers can represent individuals and businesses throughout Central New York, including Syracuse, Cicero, North Syracuse, Manlius, Liverpool, East Syracuse, Cazenovia, Baldwinsville, and DeWitt. Call today to schedule a meeting with one of our construction litigation attorneys at 1-888-LAW-4-LIFE or e-mail info@1888law4life.com
